Queen Quality BOOTS

It is unqualifiedly true that no better fitting boots were ever produced than the "Queen Quality". Their maker is a genius in combining Fit with Style. That "they fit where others fail," and "give ease the first day worn" are proverbial with every shoe man.

But you know yourself they must have some merits superior to other shoes. A factory output of 10,000 pairs per day—the largest in the world, tells you that.

The new styles ready.

TWO NEW FEATURES AT THE HOT SPRINGS

Daniel Boone Log Cabin and Old-Fashioned Virginia Grille—Proposed Colony of Prominent Northern Society Folk.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] VIRGINIA. HOT SPRINGS, September 25.—Two new features have been added to Hot Springs during the past week, and after extensive preparations, which have been carried on for the past several weeks, the Daniel Boone Log Cabin and an old-fashioned Virginia Grille at the Healing Springs have been opened.

The Daniel Boone Log Cabin, which is on the crest of a hill halfway up the Warm Springs Mountain, which is reached by several paths and an attractive, newly-made drive through the woods, was opened most auspiciously this afternoon, when several informal receptions and teas were given by members of the cottage colony and guests in the hotel. The colored string sextette and glee club, which were stationed behind masses of autumn foliage, rendered programs of old plantation melodies throughout the afternoon in the trophy room, where Mrs. Melville E. Ingalls entertained a large party of friends at tea. Others who gave teas were Mrs. Herbert M. Harriman, Mrs. Harry La Montagne, Mrs. David Dunlop, Mrs. Gouverneur Wright, Mrs. M. Alexander, and the Misses Mildred and Edith Norton, who had a large party from the old colonial hotel at Warm Springs.

The Grille at the Homestead opened on Monday evening for the season, and was the scene of several smart dinners. Dinner and late supper parties in the Japanese room and the tea pagoda have also been features of the week's entertaining. Charles Belmont Davis was a dinner host in the Grille on Monday evening in compliment to the Misses Norton, among others, present being Mr. and Mrs. Van Leer Willis and Mr. and Mrs. Shelby Bonnie.

Archibald H. McCrea entertained a luncheon company in the Grille in compliment to Mrs. David Dunlop on Tuesday, when others giving luncheons were Mrs. R. J. W. Koons, Mrs. L. O. Johnson and Arthur P. Clapp.

Old-fashioned Virginia luncheons and suppers at Warm Springs, Healing Springs and the Oaks and Fossilfern Farm have also filled in a busy week for horseback riders and devotees of afternoon driving on the newly-completed Warm Springs Boulevard.

Mrs. Alexander Loughlin entertained a buckboard party, including the Rev. Maitland Alexander, Mrs. Alexander, Mrs. Gouverneur Wright, and A. Wallace Black, at luncheon at the old colonial hotel at Warm Springs on Tuesday afternoon.

Judge Dexter Talston entertained at Warm Springs on Tuesday evening when his guests were invited to meet Andrew Gray at a late supper. Following a visit to Flag Rock for sunset at the Oaks, Mrs. Joseph Milbank

OUR OPENING IS OVER, and pronounced a grand success by all who availed themselves of the opportunity of looking, trying on and receiving most courteous treatment, whether buyers or not, and we have settled down to real business. The hat fashion is more subject than dresses to all the numberless fluctuations at the beginning of the season, many shapes being refused before a definite fashion comes about; but this year has struck a happy medium, and the Tricorne, trimmed in so many ways and being a universally becoming hat, is certainly here to stay.

The sole effect of a fashionable hat consists in its original shape with very little on it; but this little must have an artist's hand. This we supply. Simplicity and elegance are marked features of our Hats. Shapes for all faces are shown in abundance. The large droop front hat, with its back trimming; then, again, the Gainsborough effects; and last, "but many say best," is the simple draped Velvet Turban, always becoming, and used extensively for suit hats. Ask for any of these, as we show just what we advertise.

Each week on Tuesday, as usual, we will have a display of Imported Models.

Cakewalk. The crimson ballroom of the hotel was crowded on Tuesday evening, when the first cakewalk and plantation concert was given by colored employees of the hotel. The cakewalk, in which many new figures were introduced, was preceded by the concert, and followed by an informal dance for the younger set. Prince Gunther von Schoenberg, of Saxony, and Herbert M. Harriman, H. J. Lucas, G. Barret Moxley and E. C. Wallace acted as judges.

George Cole Scott entertained a motor party at a picnic tea at Falling Springs on Friday afternoon, when mint juleps made by the host were features of the menu. The guests were Mrs. Seth Barton French, Mrs. Scott, Miss Scott, Ross Todd and Lincoln Killbourne.

A cotillion for the juniors was a feature of the week-end dance in the ballroom on Saturday evening, and the galleries were crowded with a brilliant assemblage, which later participated in the dance which followed. Miss Clarice French and Joel Ellis Fisher, Jr., and Miss Prudence Sterry and Barton French alternated in leading the figures. Other juniors dancing were the Misses Vieve Fisher, Mercer Dunlop, Mary Cowan, Edna Marston, Helon Morgan and Alice McAllister.

Prominent Arrivals. Many arrived at the Homestead today for the fall season, and a number will be joined by friends next week, after the Hudson-Fulton celebration ceremonies are over. Prominent among those arriving this morning were Mrs. Pembroke Jones, Miss Sadie Jones, Mrs. Elliot F. Shepard, Mrs. T. J. Oakley Rhinelander, Mrs. Willie Allen, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Brockway, Lloyd Brice and many others.

Mrs. Oliver H. P. Belmont, who is at present at her Long Island home, is expected here next week, and during her annual fall visit will probably complete the details for the development and sale of sites in Belmont Park, which she proposes to establish as a

For Good Roads.

You want something which will keep down the dust and will not become utterly worn out in a few months under automobile traffic.

There is something of interest to everybody in the announcement here that for a comparatively small cost over and above the cost of a broken stone road you can get a road dustless, and which will last under automobile traffic. Just surface with TEXACO MACADAM BINDER and the result will be freedom from dust and better lasting qualities.

Mrs. Edgar Pole and her family have returned to Bon Venue.

Mrs. George Cole Scott, of Richmond, and her children are installed in one of the hotel cottages here, after having spent the summer at Healing Springs.

FIRST PERSIMMONS AT NATURAL BRIDGE
Also Chestnuts and Chinquapins and Glorious Drives—Pretty Girl Visitors from the Schools—Autumn Habitués.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] NATURAL BRIDGE, VA., September 25.—As the days are perceptibly shortening, our guests are taking on a greater activity, trying to get as much pleasure as possible out of these glorious autumn days. The first persimmons, sweetened by the frosty nights, as well as chestnuts and chinquapins, are being brought in by our "young marooners," who are over the hills and far away on any excuse of a guest, so good is it to live the out-of-door life in this bracing climate. Driving parties also keep on the roads in continuous procession.

Student Visitors. Large parties of pretty girls from Randolph-Macon, Sweet Briar, Buena Vista, Staunton, Hollins and the many other surrounding institutions of learning are coming daily for an object-lesson in nature's mysteries, each and every one being awed with the unexpected grandeur of the Natural Bridge, the general verdict being that no amount of expectation could equal the realization of this splendid sight.

As an offset to the pretty girls, the new students at Washington and Lee, the Virginia Military Institute, the Virginia Polytechnic Institute, etc., are making this resort an objective point for their outings of a fine Sunday, and when the scholastic year begins, the parents, as well as the students, find the Natural Bridge Hotel a most attractive place in which to linger.

Autumn Habitués. William F. Bucks, of Wheeling, W. Va., who has spent each autumn for many years at the Natural Bridge Hotel, has returned to his old haunts. Another autumn habitue is Major T. S. McCabe, U. S. A., retired, who is being welcomed by many old friends. Major McCabe, before he entered the service, was a resident of Petersburg.

The young ladies of Richmond at this resort have ever held sway, but we will venture to say there has never been such a piazza belle as Miss Lily Urquhart McCabe, who is claiming just now the undivided attention of old and young.

Miss Ellen Bagby, of Richmond, who has been spending some time at Natural Bridge, is visiting in Albemarle. Registered this week from Richmond: Frank Lawton, E. W. Nabb, Mr. and Mrs. E. O. McCabe, Miss L. U. McCabe and maid, Miss Murie Milnes, Mr. and Mrs. G. P. Shackelford, P. M. Fry, W. P. Ruffin, Mrs. T. A. Cary, A. B. Fitzgerald, Miss Connie Cary, Mrs. J. G. Moore, Miss M. Moore, Miss J. Moore, Mrs. Egbert Leigh, Miss Lee and governess.

Advance in Prices of

Diamonds and Watches

The Diamond Syndicate has advanced the price of Diamonds 10 per cent. The Watch Manufacturers have advanced the prices of Watches from 7 per cent. to 10 per cent.

Anticipating this advance, we bought heavily, and as long as they last will not advance our prices a particle.

This means a saving to you, as in the first place we have never pretended to sell you better goods than some others, but we know our prices have always been lower, and our stock one of the most complete in the city.

Special.—We are showing a Solitaire Diamond Ring, 3-8 carat stone, fine color; price, $35.00, that we do not believe can be duplicated for less than $50.00.

THE FOREMOST EVENT OF THE SEASON TAKES PLACE WEDNESDAY 29TH, FROM 3 P. M. UNTIL 9 P. M.

After weeks of careful planning, this store makes its formal showing of all the new things for women to wear, Wednesday.

It is without any question the most elaborate array of garments ever presented under one roof.

As you expect from past experience, it will be a beautiful display—the old world's newest—the new world's best.

Many good judges say that the master hands in our own workrooms have equaled the very best examples from the foremost Paris designers. The creations are shown side by side—you who view them shall be the court of last resort.

That the exhibit will be rich and comprehensive beyond your greatest expectation is certain. It will be a feast for the eyes—and more. Come, by all means. Your welcome will be unlimited. Your enjoyment is assured.

AUTHENTIC EXPOSITION OF THE NEWEST AND MOST BEAUTIFUL FALL STYLES IN READY-TO-WEAR OUTER GARMENTS EVER SHOWN

No retail establishment has attempted before to gather a collection of Ready-to-Wear Garments so magnificently complete and extensive as the showing we make.

We invite you to a stock that in style and excellence of workmanship is unsurpassed and in price lowness unapproached.

We want to merit your patronage at all times solely because of the recognized superiority of our merchandise, and experience has taught us that discriminating buyers are not tempted by price competition where "quality" is lacking.

Come in and gaze upon a beautiful array of Handsome Gowns, Furs, Waists, etc.

Listen to the melodious strains of music rendered by an efficient orchestra; and mingle with your friends, on this, our opening day.
